Platform matrix for Siemens Teamcenter integrations

The version support listed in this document applies to the latest released integration version within the domains covered by this platform matrix.

Version support & release stage information

Unless otherwise specified, all integrations support Microsoft Windows 11 (x64).

Version support

- Standard: The application versions listed in the Standard column are supported for the integration's lifetime. The lifetime is three years from the initial release date of the integration generation. A generation comprises all maintenance releases that share the same major and minor version — for example, 1.0.0, 1.0.1 and 1.0.2 belong to generation 1.0.x. After this period, the integration reaches End of Life (EOL) and is no longer supported.
- Extended: The application versions listed in the Extended column are supported for the integration's lifetime under an Extended Support Agreement. Extended support is purchased separately and provided on request.
- Compatibility: The application versions listed in the Compatibility column have been verified with this integration release after its release date. Where code changes are necessary, compatibility is delivered as a hotfix; where that is not feasible, an upgrade to a supported integration version is necessary.

Release stage

- GA (General Availability): The integration is fully developed, thoroughly tested, and officially released.
- LA (Limited Availability): The integration is technically mature but not fully developed and tested.
- SA (Service Availability): The integration is only available as a project solution.
